

Brief CV of Cesare Brizio

See also: <http://xoomer.alice.it/cebrizio/Index3.html>

- Born in Bologna on 29 July 1959; unmarried
- Full honors degree in Earth Sciences (Università degli Studi di Bologna, July 1983)
- ISO 19011 Auditor for Quality Management Systems Inspections (ISO 9000/9001/9002/9004 family).
- Languages: good written and spoken English
- 25 years of continuous experience as employee and consultant. Since 1996, self-employer in IT services

Reference Roles and Profiles

- Always part of directional staff as technical marketing manager, senior analyst, business intelligence expert, project manager, trainer, demonstrator, coordinator, document manager, P.R., special projects manager. Manages contacts with the highest levels of Public Administrations.
- Since 2001 is involved in Quality Management System: he managed the QMS in small business and qualified as ISO 19011 Auditor.

Aspirations

- ❖ Areas of activity: Technical marketing, quality, directional support, business intelligence. As an alternative, connection and coordination role.
- ❖ Placement: Preferably, an adequately remunerated permanent employment contract. As an alternative, external consulting at professional fee.

Current and previous experiences

- Account Manager and Marketing / Organization consultant for RedTurtle Technology S.r.l. (www.redturtle.it) and for the Italian Companies of the ZEA Partners business network. Customers: Local Public Administration.
  - Period: from October 2006 to present
- Technical Consultant for Engineering Sanità Enti Locali S.p.A., as Business Objects / Spago BI / Oracle expert, analyst, product specialist (clinical area suite), educator. Customers: National Health Service.
  - Period: from May 2005 to December 2008
- Technical Consultant for Delta Informatica Group (Modena), roles: see "Reference Roles and Profiles". Responds to President and CEO. Customers: Ministry of Justice, National Health Service, Consortia, No-Profit, Local Public Administrations, Large Industry.
  - Period: from June 1996 to March 2005
- Marketing / Organization consultant for BIODEC S.r.l. (www.biodec.com), Spin-off of the Bologna University bioinformatics group. He participated to the Business Plan drafting and to the contacts with Venture Capital. He created didactical prototypes: Neural Networks and Dynamic Programming for biosequences alignment.
  - Period: from October 2001 to present
- Self-employer (IT Services). Mission: image digitizing, Borland Visual dBase applications for Windows. Customers: Universities, National Research Council
  - Period: from June 1996
- IT consultant for "Galileo" (see below) and Delta Informatica: technical consultant and information systems analyst for public administration and large industry (Fiat-CNH group)
  - Period: from February 1995 to June 1996
- Associate manager, and then general manager and technical director of the professional association "Galileo Studio di Informatica e Ingegneria" (informatics for public administrations) until the incorporation of this company into Delta Informatica. After the sudden death of the previous owner he autonomously managed the seven employees of the company
  - Period: from September 1993 to December 1996, date of incorporation
- Analyst and Programmer in Basic / DBIII / Clipper / Assembler / C languages under DOS o.s., RPGIII language under SSP o.s., RPG\400 language under OS\400 o.s. (software factory for Public Agencies). Responsible for the Personal Computer assembly and maintenance, technical manager and Technical Director for the firm operating under the following denominations: FORUM S.r.l., Galileo Centro Studi S.r.l., Galileo Informatica e Automazione S.r.l., Galileo Studio di Informatica e di Ingegneria. Placement: Employee
  - Period: September 1987 - February 1994
- Basic / EDL / DBIII / Clipper / Fortran programmer and analyst in EDX, DX10, DOS operating systems for Softwest S.n.c. industrial automation company. Placement: employee, then self-employer for continued assistance to Softwest customers after the company demise.
  - Period: March 1985 - September 1987
- Army Reserve Officer (Reserve Lieutenant from 12/01/1989) at the Reggimento Genio Ferrovieri, 1st Battalion, Caserma Montezemolo of Castelmaggiore (BO)
  - Period: October 1983 - January 1985

